Re: 450-2014-01535N

Dear Ms. Styles:

This letter is concerning your inquiry received in our office on March 7, 2014.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) enforces laws that prohibit employment discrimination against employees or applicants based on:

- (1) race, color, sex, religion, or national origin as defined in Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended. The employer must employ a minimum of fifteen (15) employees.
- (2) age (40 or over) as defined in the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended. The employer must employ a minimum of twenty (20) employees.
- (3) disability (physical or mental) as defined in the Americans with Disability Act of 1990 (ADA) and the American with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAAA). The employer must employ a minimum of fifteen (15) employees.
- (4) sex (wages) as defined in the Equal Pay Act of 1963. The employer must employ one (1) or more persons of the opposite sex who are employed at the same establishment, for work- the performance of which requires substantially equal skill, effort, and responsibility-performed under similar working conditions.

(5) genetic information as prohibited under the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA). The employer must employ a minimum of fifteen (15) employees.

(6) retaliation for having filed a charge of employment discrimination, or for testifying in equal employment opportunity matters, or for having otherwise opposed discrimination prohibited by the laws EEOC enforces as referenced above in paragraphs 1 through 5.

Each act of discrimination must have occurred within the last 300 days.

Your inquiry does not suggest you are stating a claim against your employer or that you are alleging a violation of the Statutes as defined above. Therefore, we have no jurisdiction or authority to process a complaint on your behalf.

We regret we cannot help you.

Sincerely,

Shelia Justice

Dear Teel Styles:

I am sorry to learn of the recent tragedy that you have experienced. It is always sad to learn that crime has touched another family. The North Carolina Victims Compensation Commission wants to do all that we can to assist you in this matter.

The laws governing the Victims Compensation Fund in this state are very specific as to what can and cannot be paid. After comparing the circumstances of your case with the laws that govern the fund, we must deny your claim. We have attached a form which states the law upon which the denial is based. Please note that there is an appeal procedure that you may follow if you disagree with our decision.

In addition, you may wish to contact the victim witness coordinator in your local District Attorney's Office to determine if there are any additional local groups that may be able to offer help to you.

Sincerely,

DECISION OF DIRECTOR:

DENIED

Based upon a thorough investigation and review of the claim filed in the hereinabove-captioned matter, the undersigned makes the following FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS:

Claimant herein seeks an award of compensation for economic loss based upon alleged criminally injurious conduct which did not occur in the State of North Carolina.

N.C.G.S. 15B-4(b) authorizes awards only for compensation for criminally injurious conduct occurring in North Carolina. Pursuant to the provisions thereof an award of compensation must be denied where the conduct which forms the grounds for an application for an award occurred outside of the State of North Carolina, in a State which has a victims compensation program.

Based upon the conclusions, the undersigned Director makes the following DETERMINATION:

Claimant's claim for compensation is disallowed.

DECISION OF DIRECTOR:

DENIED

Criminal File:)

Based upon a thorough investigation and review of the claim filed in the hereinabove-captioned matter, the undersigned makes the following FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS:

(1) The criminally injurious conduct for which claimant has applied for compensation was not reported to a law enforcement officer or agency within 72 hours of its occurrence, and investigation of this claim has established no good cause for the delay.

G.S. 15B-11(a)(3) requires that an award be denied where the alleged criminally injurious conduct is not reported to a law enforcement officer or agency within 72 hours of its occurrence, and investigation of this claim has established no good cause for the delay; therefore, claimant's claim for compensation must be denied.

(2) Investigation of this application for an award has produced insufficient information to establish that claimant's personal injury or death directly and proximately resulted from criminally injurious conduct within the meaning of G.S. 15B.

G.S. 15B authorizes an award of compensation to a claimant only when the claimant, or the victim on whose behalf a claimant acts, suffered personal injury or death as a result and proximate result of criminally injurious conduct. Since there is insufficient evidence that criminally injurious conduct occurred in the hereinabove-captioned matter, the claim must be denied.

(3) Investigation of the hereinabove-captioned matter by the undersigned with appropriate law enforcement revealed that this incident could not be substantiated.

As required by law, this office must verify that a rape or sex offense did occur and that the victim reported the incident to the appropriate law enforcement agency. In that law enforcement was unable to substantiate this incident, this claim for compensation must be denied in accordance with G.S. 143B-480.2

Based upon the conclusions, the undersigned Director makes the following DETERMINATION:

Claimant's claim for compensation is disallowed.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF) Claimant:)

Criminal File:)

DECISION OF DIRECTOR:

DENIED

Based upon a thorough investigation and review of the claim filed in the hereinabove-captioned matter, the undersigned makes the following FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS:

(1) The criminally injurious conduct for which claimant has applied for compensation was not reported to a law enforcement officer or agency within 72 hours of its occurrence, and investigation of this claim has established no good cause for the delay.

G.S. 15B-11(a)(3) requires that an award be denied where the alleged criminally injurious conduct is not reported to a law enforcement officer or agency within 72 hours of its occurrence, and investigation of this claim has established no good cause for the delay; therefore, claimant's claim for compensation must be denied.

(2) Investigation of this application for an award has produced insufficient information to establish that claimant's personal injury or death directly and proximately resulted from criminally injurious conduct within the meaning of G.S. 15B.

G.S. 15B authorizes an award of compensation to a claimant only when the claimant, or the victim on whose behalf a claimant acts, suffered personal injury or death as a result and proximate result of criminally injurious conduct. Since there is insufficient evidence that criminally injurious conduct occurred in the hereinabove-captioned matter, the claim must be denied.

(3) Investigation of the hereinabove-captioned matter by the undersigned with appropriate law enforcement revealed that this incident could not be substantiated.

As required by law, this office must verify that a rape or sex offense did occur and that the victim reported the incident to the appropriate law enforcement agency. In that law enforcement was unable to substantiate this incident, this claim for compensation must be denied in accordance with G.S. 143B-480.2

Based upon the conclusions, the undersigned Director makes the following DETERMINATION:

Claimant's claim for compensation is disallowed.
